

DES Training & Consultancy is led by David Shaw, who has 30 years' experience in the financial, learning and development and health & social care sectors.

Roles have included Small Business Advisor, Commercial lending

Facilitator, operational director and management positions tasked with turning around businesses, as well as setting up and starting new business ventures.

You can rely that everyone you deal with are specialist, fully qualified and competent individuals, so whatever training event or service purchased will be of the highest quality.

DES Training & Consultancy are able to offer a wide range of services, bespoke to your business needs.

Whether is it coaching or training, for you or the team, then call the professionals.

You can call on 01924 769652 or 07760 569495
or email info@destrainingandconsultancy.co.uk

Support your business growth

Are you ready to take your business to the next level? If so we can support you with: growth planning in all key areas of business, financial projections and management product/service development.

Leadership & management skills training

We are able to offer a wide range of leadership and management training interventions. Events can be tailored to individual clients' needs, and each course can accommodate up to 12 delegates.

Business coaching

Is your business struggling, financially struggling, under performing, wanting to grow? If the answer is yes then you need a business coach for yourself or members of the team.